POP GOES PROHIBITION

THE ULTIMATE HOGMANAY GALA BALL
AT SHERATON GRAND HOTEL & SPA, EDINBURGH

26th October 2017: Enjoy the magical atmosphere of Edinburgh's Hogmanay at the luxurious Sheraton Grand Hotel & Spa. With breathtaking views of Edinburgh Castle, guests at the legendary annual gala ball will be at the heart of the action as New Year celebrations unfold across the city.

The stylish Hogmanay shindig, inspired by the decadent shenanigans of Jay Gatsby during the prohibition era, will see merrymakers sip on Champagne and savour canapés as well as feast on an indulgent five-course dinner. Designed by Executive Chef, Craig Hart, the menu will offer dishes such as the beautifully prepared ballotine of langoustine and smoked salmon with burnt lemon gel and orange dust, a mouth-watering Scotch beef fillet with pomme purée and charred cauliflower and a decadent Manjari chocolate and toffee fondant with white chocolate ice cream.

A live five piece jazz band will provide the evening's soundtrack whilst the Ceilidh is in full swing until just before midnight, when guests will have the opportunity to join the crowds in Festival Square to countdown to 2018. Complete with panoramic views of Scotland's most famous and impressive firework display, the evening will continue until the early hours with dancing and late night snacks.

About the Sheraton Grand Hotel & Spa

The Sheraton Grand Hotel & Spa first opened in 1985 and is one of Edinburgh's most luxurious hotels. With an enviable location in Edinburgh's city centre, the hotel has dramatic views of Edinburgh castle and is within walking distance from all of the major attractions including the Royal Mile, Arthur's Seat and shops on Princes Street. Following an exciting multi-million pound refurbishment, the hotel offers 269 stunning guest rooms with cutting-edge technology, glass walled bathrooms and Sheraton Signature Sleep Experience beds. The renovation of the Sheraton Grand Hotel & Spa has also seen the addition of a brand new Club Floor and an exciting new bar and restaurant. The hotel also boasts a dedicated meetings and events complex with 14 flexible function rooms. The Sheraton Grand Hotel & Spa is also home to One Spa, widely regarded as one of Europe's finest city Spas offering a range of holistic Spa treatments, 19m swimming pool, iconic hydro pool and unique Thermal Suite. The newly refurbished gym & studios are equipped with Sheraton Fitness by Core Performance, a tailored exercise programme unique to Sheraton guests.
