

The Perfect Mix

At One Square, we appreciate that the difference between a good bar and a great one is all in the details. From the Scottish Ionian marble on the bar to over 100 different varieties of gin proudly positioned behind it, we have spent considerable time perfecting the finer points. The same can be said of our cocktails, with a real emphasis on premium ingredients, well-crafted and served with style.

While gin is, as you may well have guessed, something of a house speciality, our wine list has also been expertly considered, with a concise selection of our favourite reds and whites available by the glass. Why not make yourself comfortable, choose a few dishes from our Small Plates menu and spend some quality time with us?

An Introduction to Gin

Invented in Holland around the 17th century, Genever was originally a medicinal remedy for all kinds of ailments and was later discovered by English troops fighting in the 80 year war who marvelled at the 'Dutch Courage' the elixir gave them. They brought the concoction home to London where it was refined and became gin. From Gin Lane to the 1920s speakeasies, Swinging London to Studio 54 – styles may have changed but gin remains as iconic as ever.

One Square Gin

It's no secret that gin is our passion at One Square, so when the opportunity arose to produce our very own small batch right here in Edinburgh we were most excited indeed. Of course, we were inspired by the 100 plus different varieties behind the bar, not to mention the many guests that have joined us for a G&T over the years. Starting with a traditional recipe, we got our heads together with our friends at Pickering's Gin at Summerhall and selected over 15 botanicals from across the world. After all, Edinburgh, and in particular the port of Leith, has a long and rich history of global trade, so we thought it only right that this should be reflected in the end product.

The result is a truly globetrotting gin, hand-made with only the finest natural ingredients. Mediterranean liquorice and orris root add a heady kick, while juniper and fragrant Scottish heather are harvested much closer to home. Notes of pink grapefruit, lime and anise are combined to create a citrusy, easy-drinking gin that refreshes and invigorates in equal measure.

Tonic Water at One Square

Tonic water has been drunk for centuries as a preventative for Malaria owing to the primary ingredient, quinine; a bitter alkaloid extracted from the bark of the Cinchona tree. It is said that the Spanish were the first to use the bark of the Cinchona tree in the early 1630s when the Countess of Chinchon contracted malaria.

SCHWEPES 125ml 2.50
The oldest soft drinks company in the world, Schweppes was set up by young Swiss watchmaker and keen amateur scientist Jacob Schweppes back in 1783, when his carbonated water was used primarily for curing indigestion and gout. Since its humble beginnings Schweppes has become the largest supplier of tonic water in the world; and for many Schweppes is the 'T' in a G&T. A great match for mid-range gins that can hold their own against the lemon, sugars and quinine content of this tonic.

BTW TONIC SYRUP 200ml 3.00
Hand crafted in the heart of London to a traditional Victorian recipe, BTW is a dark coloured, all-natural tonic syrup. Quinine is extracted straight from South American Cinchona bark using heat & water and no other botanicals are added, this prevents your palette becoming confused. Any gin you choose to mix with BTW becomes the star of the show.

FENTIMANS TONIC 125ml 3.00
The bold and brazen flavour of lemongrass and quinine in Fentimans was made for one reason and one reason only... to mix with gin! A goal that they have most certainly achieved with a zesty tonic that is in fact a tiny bit alcoholic. Fentimans is best enjoyed with a big, flavourful gin.

FEVER TREE TONIC 200ml 3.00
The brainchild of Charles Rolls and Tim Warrilow, Fever Tree tonic was first released in 2005. Using spring water and 8 natural botanical flavours including quinine imported from Rwanda and the Congo, to the bitter oranges from Tanzania, has brought about a tonic of true quality that perfectly accompanies some of the gins we serve here at One Square. The tiny champagne-like bubbles that rise help to capture the aromas of the gins and enhance their natural taste. There are no artificial sweeteners, flavourings or preservatives used in the making of Fever Tree.

1724 TONIC WATER 200ml 3.50
An exciting addition to our already scintillating tonic selection, 1724 is a premium brand made with quinine from high on the Peruvian Inca trail, and pure Patagonian spring water. The 1724 of the name refers to the height above sea level (1,724 meters) at which the Cinchona tree – the naturally occurring source of quinine is harvested, making for a delicious, less bitter tonic with slight mandarin notes. Perfect with our premium gins, this could oh-so-easily be enjoyed.

WALTER GREGOR'S 200ml 3.50
A brand new truly Scottish gem. It's an all natural tonic water made using infused botanicals giving a clean, crisp taste. The farm where the tonic is produced is located in the historic parish of Pitsligo which stretches down to the Moray Firth coast.

BON ACCORD 200ml 3.50
Bon Accord is back! Established in 1909 and brought to you by the great-great-granddaughter of the company founder. Clean and crisp flavour, with a hint of citrus and vanilla. Discover what generations of flavour experience taste like!

The Perfect Serve

At One Square we take the humble gin and tonic very seriously. Created to ensure that the troops stationed in India had their daily dose of quinine to keep Malaria at bay, gin is a complex and often misunderstood spirit. Here, we have taken the opportunity to highlight a few classic brands and some more contemporary suggestions to invigorate your senses. All gins are served in a frozen balloon glass complemented with a bespoke garnish and a matching tonic to emphasise the qualities of each distillate.

SCOTTISH SERVES

PICKERING'S 1947 50ml 15.00

This amazingly complex Scottish gem is made in Edinburgh's first gin distillery in over 150 years, and the 1947 edition is made precisely to their original recipe.

Served with an orange wedge and a cinnamon stick topped with Fentimans tonic.

OLD RAJ 46% 14.00

A remarkable gin, infused with a large amount of saffron, a rare and costly spice derived from the crocus flower. In addition to a slightly spicy flavour, this also gives the gin a pale yellow colour.

Garnished with coriander seeds and lemon peel topped with Fever Tree Indian Tonic

WILD ISLAND OF COLONSAY 15.00

Made of six native plants which are hand gathered in Colonsay in spring and summer – lemon balm, wild water mint, meadowsweet, sea buckthorn, heather flowers and bog myrtle – provide the heart and soul of Wild Island Botanic Gin.

Complemented with mint and lemon essential oils and topped with 1724 tonic

HILL & HARBOUR 50ml 15.00

Galloway is the home to to this gin. Surrounded by forests and unspoilt coastlines.

Noble Fir needles & Bladderwrack Seaweed are distilled with 9 other botanicals, creating a smooth and vibrant gin. Served with a slice of mango topped with some good tonic.

LONDON SERVES

COTSWOLDS DRY GIN 50ml 15.00

Distilled with nine carefully considered botanicals, the Cotswolds Dry Gin is a London Dry with an aromatic twist.

Produced in small batches, this is handmade gin with no corners cut. Garnished with a Red grapefruit and topped with Bon Accord Tonic.

BROCKMAN'S 50ml 14.50

It is a perfect blend of naturally grown aromatic botanicals and the subtle nuances of different styles of gin skillfully combined together, to create an intensively smooth and delicious gin. Complemented with pink grapefruit peel and blackberries topped with 1724 tonic.

INTERNATIONAL SERVES

INK GIN Australia 50ml 15.00

The colour of Ink Gin is derived from the deep infusion of petals from an exotic blue flower.

This natural floral infusion gives Ink Gin a remarkable and lustrous quality, most elegantly displayed in our signature Ink & Tonic, which changes colour from deep blue to blush pink when mixed.

Served with Fever Tree Mediterranean tonic and garnished with rosemary and orange.

KAAVA SPARKLING GIN Spain 50ml 16.50

Spirit distilled from the grapes Macabeo, Xarel·lo and Parellada. The traditional blend for making the famous Spanish sparkling wine, Cava. The creation of a new category is aimed by following an unconventional process of 4 stages, combining details and secrets of both worlds. Complemented with lemon peel, cinnamon stalk and twisted with sparkling wine followed by very cold tonic water.

ALCOHOL-FREE SERVES

Seedlip

The World's first non-alcoholic spirit created by Ben Branson in his kitchen in the woods with a copper still and a copy of The Art of Distillation to continue his family's 300 year farming ancestry, solving the dilemma 'What to drink when you're not drinking'.

SEEDLIP SPICE 94 25ml 9.00

Aromatic, earthy and woody complemented with Fever Tree natural tonic and a pink grapefruit twist.

SEEDLIP GARDEN 108 25ml 9.00

The Martini

MARTINEZ

10.50

Probably the forerunner of the Martini. The first known recipe of this drink appears in O.H. Byron's 1884 book The Modern Bartender. There are of course stories about where the name came from; some claiming it for the town of Martinez in California, others saying it was made for a customer who used to travel to the town during the 1849 gold rush.

We have to admit that we'll probably never know the true origin story of this beloved cocktail. But we think that's okay: it's so much more entertaining to dream up our own stories.

Bols Genever stirred down with Carpano Antica Formula sweet vermouth, Maraschino liqueur and orange bitters garnished with a generous orange twist.

GIN MARTINI

10.00

A popular myth suggests the Martini to have been created at the Knickerbocker Hotel NY by Martini di Arma di Taggia in 1912 although we believe this to be much too late. Moving on some years, we see the repeal of the prohibition in 20th century America which in turn marks a new era for gin and the Martini! This brings us to meet the Martini as we know it, as dry as you like and as eccentrically garnished to suit your palate.

Beefeater gin stirred down with Noilly Prat vermouth and garnished as you desire.

THE VESPER

11.00/13.50

Created by Gilberto Preti for author Ian Fleming and made famous by James Bond, initially sharp and hard faced but subtly softened with time, this modern classic is a beautiful metaphor of Bond's lover Vesper Lynd in Casino Royale. This one we will happily make 'shaken not stirred'.

A vigorous combination of Tanqueray gin, Absolut vodka and Lillet Blanc.

Why not try our Luxury Vesper in true Bond style with Oxley gin and Absolut Elyx vodka alongside Lillet Blanc and a lavish lemon twist? OR opt for Lillet Rouge for a deeper flavour.
